

Teddy Bear

Teddy bear, teddy bear bust a move, shake your fuzzy butt to my funky groove, you're crumping like an itchy scratchy crawl all over you, growling triumphant like you broke out of the zoo, flying like a dodo didn't know he never could, chewing up the floor like a beaver chewing wood, walking on the moon water fire and your paws, and breaking all the rules couple of windows and some doors,

Hey teddy bear turn around,
Hey teddy bear are you getting dizzy?

Teddy bear, teddy bear growly growl, yodel like a poodle who's upon the prowl, no talking get squawking like a beaky bird, the lowest and the highest that I've ever heard, hum a diddle um a then a hum again, hooty toot toot and hiss like a train, Pavarotti from your botty, Bono outa ya nose, Sinatra when you fartra make em tingle in the toes,

Hey teddy bear turn around,
Hey teddy bear are you getting dizzy?

You were once my daddy's bear, you had two eyes and lots of hair, you were stuffed in the nicest way, you rode in trucks, you took the knocks, you tried your luck and tried on my socks, when you came undone we stitched you up again,

Hey teddy bear,
Hey teddy bear are you getting dizzy?
