

Trolls in Tutus

When the bone crunchings done, and the mud munchings done, the lizard lunchings done, and the shoulder hunchings done, trolls put on their tutus and they dance in the sun

When teeth gnashings no fun, and cake bashings all done, they're too tired too run, and they can't even hum, trolls put on their fairy wings and dance in the sun

When the na na nas done, and the boo boo boos done,
the burpy burps done,
and the growly growl is done, trolls put on their sparklys and they dance in the sun

When the mucky mess is done, and the dirt bath is done, the nail chewings done, and they've poked out their tongues, Trolls all call their mommas and then suck their hairy thumbs Trolls all drink their herbal tea and sing and have some sing and have some fun

Come on sing and have fun!
